

graduating high school seniors in the name of their corporation, organization, school/youth group or in memory/honor of an individual.

Scholarships range in value and awards are submitted directly to the college or university of the student's choice. Frisco ISD graduating seniors must submit an application to be considered for the scholarships, which are awarded on the basis of academic achievement, financial need, community involvement, volunteer efforts and other criteria designated by donors. View the Frisco Education Foundation Scholarship List (list subject to change without notice).

Since 1999, FEF has awarded more than $8.7 million in college scholarships to more than 7,900 graduating seniors, thanks to the generosity of Foundation supporters and outside scholarship donors.

Additional Resources to Encourage Our Youth

Meet College Prep Boss Tameka Williamson Who Helped Students Earn $75M
Scholarships – She shares 5
free college readiness tips

It's that time of year when colleges take in early applicants and give scholarships left and right. But for many parents, the process is confusing and the paperwork can pile up.

Tameka L. Williamson, aka "The College Prep Boss", takes pride in her job helping parents send their kids to college for FREE!

The College For Free founder and best-selling author sheds new light on how parents can help their children with the stressful college application process.

With her sensible approach to college scholarship research, Williamson is helping families find new forms of financial freedom and introducing academic hopefuls to all of the free scholarship money available to them. Inspired by her own path to college, Williamson combined her passion for helping others with her technical skills to create a travel guide that helped students earn more than $75 million in scholarships.
